Sir,

Advances-loans-Harpanahalli taluk -Fasli 1342 - instalment -collection -suspension -recommended -

I recommend the suspension of collection of loan instalments of Fasli 1342 in Harpanahalli taluk for the following reasons.

2. On account of excessive rains of 40.23 inches in 1932 as against the average of 23.90, the crops suffere much damage. The cholam stored in grain pits was spoil as the rain water found its way into them. Coupled this, the price of grains has considerably gone down and what little money the ryot got by the sale of grains was paid towards land revenue and the loan instalments of 1341 which were generally in arrears. It has not been possible to recover the instalments even by applying coercive processes as in many cases the sale of cattle and crops fetched no bids and where si. were secured, they were not enough to cover the arrea The Revenue Divisional Officer ,Hospet, Mr.V.Hanumanth Nayudu who was himself in the Revenue Subordinate Ser of the district and therefore knows it, visited sever. villages in the interior of all the firkas and has com to the conclusion that the economic condition of the in this taluk is such that they cannot pay the loan instalments of Fasli 1342. Land revenue was collected llected with great difficulty.

The demand for Fasli 1342 is as follows:

L.I.L. Rs. 14493.2.1

A.G.L. Rs. 20049.3. 4

BOARD OF REVENUE
14 JUN 1933
LAND REVENUE AND SETTLEMENT

There is yet a balance of Rs.8779.11.- under both the Acts of F.1341 to be collected. Much of this balance is covered by land sales. It is therefore not possible to collect the instalments of F.1342 without inflicting unnecessary hardship.

4. The officers who granted the loans may suspend the payment of the instalments but are diffident about doing so. It is better that a general suspension be ordered by Government.

I therefore recommend that the Board will be pleased to recommend to Government the general suspension of the collection of loan instalments of F.1342, from those who do not wish to pay.
